LLD

The Lodge Leadership Development Training was very successful. We had presentations about the role of adults in the Order of the Arrow, Parliamentary Procedure, awards in the Order of the Arrow, using resources, and a special presentation by our lodge chief, Josh Williams. The LLD started at 8:30am and once it was completed we started the LECM. Special thanks are necessary for Amanda Smith who organized the LLD.

LECM

Lodge Officer Reports

Indian Affairs (Andrew Miller): The ceremony team will be doing crossover ceremony at St. Stephens Church. The ceremony team will be doing a Campfire/Opening at the John Ross Camporee. The next ceremony team practice will be January 9, 2009. New members for the ceremony team are welcome. Interested youth arrowmen need to contact Dennis Williams.

Lodge Secretary (Tyler Morris): The minutes for the Banquet, Fall Fellowship and November LEC were sent to the Lodge Executive Committee.

Ocoee Chapter Chief (Mitchell Schroll): Requests for the ceremony team for the fire lighting and callout for the Ocoee Winter Camperee.

John Ross Chapter Chief (Drew Rogers): Nothing to report.

New Business

Elections will start in January. Chapter chiefs will need to contact troops so elections can be finished by March. Chapter chiefs are the election teams.

Mountain district and Mission district need chapter chiefs.

Spring Fellowship will be at Booker T. Washington State Park on March 13, 2010. It will be a one-day event and the LECM voted to practice the conclave quest events.

For the conclave, we would like sixty people to represent the lodge. The COC will be January 30, 2010. Further conclave information will be given after that meeting. Each lodge may sell lodge items at the trading post during conclave. The LEC discussed the possibility of a conclave lodge flap.

Ordeal will be May 14-15, 2010. We will be starting a Nemat Program at this ordeal.

Old Business

The lodge reorganization has been tabled until the next LECM. The key three will discuss details and determine if it is within the bylaws.

We need a lodge training chair.

We thanked Amanda Smith for the organizing the LLD.

Next LECM is January 21, 2010.
