Officer Reports

Secretary- Copies of minutes were approved.

Ocoee Chapter Chief- Fellowship at the Ocoee Raft Race was successful. We ran out of food.

Mountain Chapter Chief- unable to attend due to illness.

Business

A tentative menu was presented for the upcoming ordeal.

Friday Cracker Barrel: pizza, chips and salsa, drinks

Saturday Breakfast: scrambled eggs, bacon, biscuits, gravy, hash browns

Saturday Lunch: sloppy joes, tater tots, cookies

Saturday Dinner: BBQ chicken, potatoes ala beach, green beans, salad, dinner roll

Saturday Cracker Barrel: Root Beer, cobblers with ice cream, any leftovers

Sunday Breakfast: sausage biscuits, sweet rolls, cereal

Mitchell Schroll is checking into fun activities for fellowship time during ordeal. He is considering a mid-evil theme.

Mr. Will Council reviewed possible work projects. He is compiling a list.

Mr. Will Council, Mr. Warren Diegal, and Josh Williams need a count of pre-registered for ordeal. Registration is 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. CT.

Section leaders will visit since this is our last ordeal before Conclave in April.

Ms. Amanda Smith asked for volunteers for Sunday's presentation to ordeal candidates. Jacob Wirz will cover Conclave and NOAC. Tyler Morris will present OA High Adventure. Mitchell Schroll will present on ceremony team.

Mr. Dennis Williams will collect the Founders Awards forms by noon Saturday of the Ordeal weekend.

A Vigil ceremony will take place this ordeal.

Purchase of new ceremony back patches for was approved.

Approval was made for funding the international fee estimated to be $435.

Purchases were made to restock the OA trading post. Tyler will obtain change for registration and the trading post.

Greg Lee is working on special T-shirts for elagomats. He will give Tommy Rogers prices.

Plans are to set up the engraver with the trading post.

Which should be done--October Talking Leaves or E-Leave or both? If we just do an electronic version copies can be printed for conclave completion. Youth are needed to write the articles.

David Forsten has obtained 15 new poles for the ceremony ring.

More volunteers are needed in the kitchen during the Cub N Partner weekends. Youth are welcome to come help in the dining hall. Anyone wanting to help please contact Warren Diegel or James Beach.

Fall Fellowship is November 4 and 5. A full lock-in at the YMCA is too expensive so Tyler Morris and Logan Bailey are checking into just swimming and having the lock-in at Burk's UMC.

The Advisor's minute included a moment of silence for Tim Steadman.

Respectfully submitted,

Tyler Morris
